

Playing Big with Tara Mohr

Common Qualities of Callings

- You feel an unusually vivid pain or frustration around the status quo of a particular issue or topic.
- You see a powerful vision – vague or clear – about what could be.
- You feel huge resistance.
- You feel a sense of “this work is mine to do” or of having received an assignment.
- Doing the work feels special. You feel a rare sense of meaning, rightness, and immense energy when doing the calling.
- You don’t – yet – have everything you need to have to complete the task.
- You aren’t – yet – the person you need to be to do the calling.
- The journey is the reward.
